JACK ROBINSON COMES TO TOWN

Salina Jack Robinson, one of the toughest little welter weights on the coast who is to meet Johnny McCarthy in a 25 round battle at the Airdome next Tuesday night, arrived in Tonopah this morning. Salinas looks every inch the tough little fighter he is, confident of giving McCarthy all the fighting he wants. He claims to have been working his head off in order to get in the best shape for his coming scrap.

His record books show he is a veteran of over 120 hard fought battles and has had but three decisions rendered against him. This is some record, considering that he has been meeting the best of them for the past five years.

Among some of the men he has met are found such well known boxers as Frank Barriacaw, Johnny McCarthy, Frankie Jones, George Shade, Dick Randall of New York, Joe Elliot, Frankie Burns, Spud Murphy, Frankie Haynie.

Robinson says: "I have really never lost a fight. There have been several decisions rendered against me, but it is my opinion they were unjust. I was never knocked off my feet. I boxed McCarthy three times and each time I gave him all he wanted and I just barely got started in four rounds; just what I will do to him in 25 rounds I do not know but I am sure I'll be there at the finish."
